LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring  $10\frac{3}{4}$  inches by  $7\frac{1}{2}$  inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-my1 W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 14256.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Fairfield Ranch, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 19th day of October, 1934.

The authorized capital of the Company is ten thousand dollars, divided into four hundred shares of twenty-five dollars each.

The address of its registered office is Railway Avenue, Armstrong, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or any other manner, lands and premises, and to erect thereon warehouses, stores, offices, oil-tanks, garages, or other conveniences, storage or other buildings which the Company may require for its business, and to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of such lands or buildings when the Company deems it expedient to do so:

(b.) To develop and turn to account any land by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, pulling down, altering, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(c.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or any other manner, equipment, machinery, supplies, or other conveniences necessary for the development and maintenance of the Company's land and premises, wherever situate, and to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of such equipment, machinery, supplies, or conveniences when the Company deems it expedient to do so:

(d.) To act as landlords, and to rent any or all lands and buildings or any parts thereof to any tenant or tenants suitable to the Company, and to collect the rents or charges therefrom:

(e.) To carry on a general warehouse business, and in connection therewith to store goods, wares, and merchandise of every kind and description; to issue storage and warehouse receipts and collect storage and other dues:

(f.) To enter into agreements or other reciprocal arrangements with all persons, associations, or corporations having lands or buildings which are deemed to be necessary for the development or maintenance of this Company:

(g.) To conduct and carry on the business of produce merchants and shippers, machinery dealers or agents, and to deal in seeds, fertilizers, box-shook, paper supplies and wraps, and all other merchandise within the scope of a general produce and shipping business; to maintain a storage and general trucking business, and to own and operate a fleet of trucks or drays, and in connection with the business of the Company to establish branch stores, agencies, brokerage houses or offices for the development of this business:

(h.) To make advances in goods or other supplies to persons or corporations having dealings with the Company for such purposes and upon such terms as the Company shall deem meet:

(i.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(j.) To take and otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on business capable of being conducted so as to be, directly or indirectly, beneficial to this Company:

(k.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, and to pledge the Company's assets by executing assignments and mortgages:

(m.) To subscribe to, become a member of, and co-operate with, or to acquire, take, and hold shares in, any incorporated company or association having a limited liability and objects in whole or part similar to its own objects, and to authorize one or more of its members to exercise on its behalf all rights of membership in such company or association:

(n.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company or any other association carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on:

(o.) To sell or dispose of the undertakings of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects similar to its own:

(p.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the properties and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(q.) To pay the expenses of and incidental to the foundation and incorporation of the Company, and to remunerate any director or any other person or persons for services rendered in or about the formation of its business, in cash or in any other manner as the Company may determine:

(r.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.
